

World Cup Supply seeks seasonal Inside Sales/Customer Service Associate.

For 25 years World Cup Supply provided the ski racing, resort and event communities with top quality products and exemplary customer service. We currently have an opening on our sales team for a full time, seasonal Inside Sales/Customer Service Associate. This fast paced, hourly position involves processing orders including a number of other sales and customer service related tasks.

The ideal candidate would have a background in alpine ski racing, but experience in any winter discipline is valued. Experience with QuickBooks or similar software as well as MS Excel is highly desirable. A sense of humor, high degree of attention to detail and ability to multitask are a must. Prior experience in sales or customer service is also preferred. The anticipated start date would be September 1st; the end date would be April 1st.

We offer competitive compensation, paid legal holidays and a positive and inclusive work environment. The potential for full time, year-round employment for the right candidate exists. Interested candidates should email their resume to info@worldcupsupply.com No phone calls please.
